

Insider Knowledge. Advantage, You.

You want a winning event at Flamingo Las Vegas. We give you an inside edge. The event solutions consultants at FedEx Office are the onsite team with one thing in mind: your success.

Start-to-Finish Expertise

Because we're located onsite, we know the venue and how to make your messages stand out. Our expert consultants will help you create powerful event branding. And you'll see your ideas turn heads when we print large-format signs and graphics, from escalator wraps to show-stopping banners.

Order your printed materials in advance and everything will be ready when you arrive. As soon as the show ends, we can ship packages home or to your next destination.
